Conservatives improve result in Cleveland

Greg Stafford has won the Cleveland by-election held on the 19th July following the sad death of Brian Castle with an increased majority, despite a reduced turnout.

Greg said "I'm very happy and I'm very excited and looking forward to starting as a councillor tomorrow." He also paid tribute to Brian Castle saying, "He was a conscientious and hard working councillor and I hope I can live up to the standards he set. I'd like to thank all the Cleveland residents who supported me and assure you that I will be working hard for all Cleveland's residents."

Cllr Popham added, "I'd like to congratulate Greg, I'm sure he's going to make a great councillor."

Weekly Rubbish Collection to stay

Contrary to the message put out in Liberal Democrat leaflets during the election campaign, weekly rubbish collection is here to stay.

Cleveland councillor and deputy leader of Ealing Council, Ian Gibb said, "The Lib Dem leaflets were completely misleading. We are committed to weekly rubbish collection and always have been. The only councillor that has called for fortnightly bin collections is Cllr Harvey Rose, leader of the Liberal Democrat group on Ealing Council. We have made it clear that we have no intention of following the Liberal Democrat's advice because of the increase in smells, vermin and dumping that would happen."
