Election Special

TITCHFIELD COMMON WARD

YOUR LOCAL CANDIDATE FOR FAREHAM
BOROUGH COUNCIL

KEITH EVANS

Fair Planning For Fareham

Conservatives say that local residents and local councillors should have the major say in local planning and not a government minister or un-elected regional body.

- Local councillors should be given a much greater role in deciding how many homes, what type, where and when those homes should be built.

- The views of local people should carry greater weight than those of the office of central government.

Keith Evans comments "The Hunts Pond Road development was originally designated for 220 to 240 dwellings and with access on to the Warsash Road. With government interference we now have 360 to 390 with access on to Hunts Pond Road."

NO to infill & back garden development

We need real planning powers in local hands, handled sensibly with regard for local needs – housing, infrastructure, environment

NO to Gravel Extraction

NO SAND & GRAVEL EXTRACTION

Says
Councillor
Keith Evans

Keith has campaigned for a roundabout at the new Hunts Pond Road / Warsash Road junction

Hampshire County Council's potential plans to extract sand and gravel will devastate the 300 hectares site bordering the Solent at Chilling & Brownwich and must not go ahead. Keith formally objected to the plans during 2007 and has worked with the local CAMEL action group to oppose.

Keith has had meetings with Hampshire officers to ensure that they understand the widespread public use of this area and its natural beauty. He will continue to vigorously oppose any extraction at this site.

Dear Elector

I am writing to ask for your support in the Fareham Borough Council Local Elections on Thursday May 1st.

As your existing Councillor and an In Touch contributor, I have already been working for you by giving information about key activities that can affect us locally, by strongly representing your views at the Council and by providing a means for feedback that can be input to the Borough and County Councils.

Fareham is a thriving town and I am proud that residents are generally well satisfied with the services provided and that we have a safe and pleasant environment. Conservatives achieve this with the lowest Council Tax in Hampshire by managing your town sensibly and efficiently. This is critical - the only monies the council has are yours.

I do:

- Respond to your calls and find time to meet with you.
- Follow through to get answers to your problems & concerns.
- Provide you with information on Council plans & actions.
- Represent the views and needs of local residents as effectively and realistically as possible.
- Keep In Touch throughout the year - not just at election time and will continue to be available to you and to work hard on your behalf if re-elected on Thursday May 1st.

Yours sincerely

Keith D Evans

M.P. Mark Hoban says “Keith is an excellent and committed Councillor. As his work on Brownwich & Chilling shows, he understands the local issues and makes sure your voice is heard in Fareham Borough Council.”

Councillor Mike Godrich says “Keith Evans is an excellent Councillor who has worked hard to support the residents of Titchfield Common. Two issues being the upgrade of the changing rooms at the Locks Heath Sports & Social club recreation ground and strenuous efforts opposing the proposed gravel extraction. He is a hard working Councillor and I commend Keith as your candidate.”
